Phone: (852) 2766 5817, Fax: (852) 2764 5131

Aims

The aims of the Institute are as follows:-

- To create an awareness in the community of the benefits to be derived from the application of Value Management in Hong Kong.
- To encourage the use of the Value Management process by sponsors.
- To establish and maintain standards of Value Management practice in Hong Kong.
- To contribute to the dissemination of the knowledge and skills of Value Management.
- To establish an identity for the Institute within Hong Kong and overseas.
- To encourage research and development of Value Management with particular emphasis on developing new applications of the process.
- To encourage and assist in the education of individuals and organisations in Value Management in Hong Kong.
- To establish and maintain a Code of Conduct for practitioners of Value Management in Hong Kong.
- To maintain lists of Value Management Facilitators in Hong Kong.
- To attract membership of the Institute to support these objectives.

Activities

- Conference
The Institute is currently organising the fifth international conference scheduled in May 2002. It is anticipated that it is an event of international importance.
- Luncheon Meetings
The Institute organises eight luncheon meetings per year for members and non-members. On each occasion, speakers will be invited to share their experiences on Value Management or related areas.
- Publication
The Institute publishes a newsletter entitled “Value Manager” on regular basis. Members will receive the newsletters free of charge. Members are also encouraged to send articles to the Institute for publication.
- Lists of Value Management Facilitators
The Institute maintains lists of Value Management Facilitators for public and private clients in Hong Kong. Value management facilitators who want to be listed MUST BE members of the Institute.

Membership

Membership is open to individuals who have active and genuine interest in the promotion and applications of Value Management. The Institute’s membership is made up of two different classifications:

- Member
- Associate Member
(Students are encouraged to apply for Associate Membership)

Membership application requirements are as follows:

Member (MHKIVM)

This classification is available to individuals who can demonstrate an acceptable level of knowledge and experience in the field of Value Management.

For admission, details on the Application Form are to be completed and copy of CV outlining professional employment, experiences and value management background enclosed. Value Management Background incorporating details of VM training and courses in VM process, application and techniques, number of studies, types of studies, role in process, days and dates should be stated clearly in the CV.

Associate Member

The Associate Member classification is available to any individual who can demonstrate interest in the objectives of HKIVM, but may not have had sufficient Value Management experience to qualify as a Member. Once Associate Members have obtained sufficient exposure to and experience of Value Management, they are encouraged to apply for full membership.

The Entrance Fee and Membership Upgrading Fee is HK$300 and the annual membership fees are as follows:
